

Victoria

Celia Tran

23 years old | Vietnamese Australian

Master of International Community Development graduate, youth empowerment champion, and advocate for young women, community organiser and ardent public speaker.

Celia previously worked as a Youth Coordinator with the Asylum Seeker Resource Centre helping run a youth empowerment program for asylum seeker youth and worked as a public speaker for the CMY Shout-Out Program. Celia currently works for a NFP organisation assisting at risk youth in engaging them through projects, placement and study opportunities in Melbourne. Celia is an active community advocate and currently sits on the Governance Committee for the Dual Identity Leadership Program run by the Vietnamese Community of Australia (Victorian Chapter, VCA-Vic). She has been recognised for her leadership work by being awarded a 2015 Ambassador Award for Multicultural Excellence by the Victorian Multicultural Commission and the 2016 Australia Day Youth Leadership Award by the Maribyrnong City Council.

Youth Ambassador for Victoria (from December 2015 to December 2017)