

Western Australia

Ziagul (Zee) Sultani

22 years old | Afghanistan (from the Hazara Community)

Zee currently works as a Community and Youth Development Officer with the Shire of Katanning, on Saturdays Zee works at Woollies and in her spare time volunteers in a range of capacities within the community.

Zee has been a vocal advocate for multicultural young people for many years representing multicultural young people at local and regional level meetings and community gatherings. Through her local high school and the MYAN WA, Zee was recognised for her commitment to advocacy for multicultural young people, becoming a representative of MYAN WA and speaking regularly at schools and forums. Zee was one of the WA youth representatives at the MYAN's 2014 FUSE Summit, where the YAN was first envisioned and is thrilled to be one of the founding members of this important advocacy group.

Youth Ambassador for Western Australia (from December 2015 to December 2017)